CALL FOR PAPERS

KABARAK LAW SCHOOL INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON COMPARATIVE CONSTITUTIONALISM 2018

13TH – 14TH SEPTEMBER 2018

Kabarak University School of Law invites submissions on comparative constitutionalism for presentation at the Kabarak Law School International Conference on Comparative Constitutionalism 2018.

Objectives of the Conference

Kabarak Law School seeks to bring together scholars, researchers, legal practitioners, judicial officers, civil society groups, policy-makers and analysts from Africa and beyond with a view to:

1. Promote discourse on recent trends in comparative constitutional knowledge.
2. Contribute to the discourse on constitutional issues elsewhere in the world in light of the African experience.
3. Inspire rigorous research and dialogue on Constitutional and Comparative Constitutional Law matters.
4. Improve awareness, protection and promotion of constitutional rights.
5. Be a medium in networking and mentorship for young professionals in Constitutional Law and related fields.

Conference Theme: Recent Trends in Constitutional Law and Practice

Conference sub themes:

Kabarak Law School invites submissions under the following sub-themes:

- Devolved Governance in Africa
- Parliamentary systems in Africa
- Representation of the People: the management of election petitions
- Socio-economic rights: Implementing the right to housing
- Land and environment

Submission Guidelines

- A committee will review abstracts that are in English, are 300–350 words in length and in MS Word format (not PDF). Abstracts must be submitted in a single document and include: Title of abstract, Author(s) name, Affiliation(s), Qualifications, E-mail address(es)
- Participants will be required to submit their full papers by 8th May 2018.
- Kabarak Law School adopts the Oxford University Standard for Citation of Legal Authorities and submissions should conform to it. It is available at <http://www.law.ox.ac.uk/publications/oscola.php>
- Papers previously published elsewhere or currently under review for publication should not be submitted.

Conference Outputs

It is anticipated that papers presented at this conference will be reworked by authors and submitted for consideration for publication in the 2019 volume of the PLO Center Journal on Comparative Constitutional Law.
